Presbyterian Church

2nd Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2020

GATHERING

Prelude

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. And also with you.

Opening Prayer

Call to Worship — based on Psalm 118

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;

God's Easter love endures forever.

In our anguish we cried to the Lord,
and God answered by setting us free.

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;

God's Easter love endures forever.

The Lord is our strength and our song;

God has become our salvation.

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;

God's Easter love endures forever.

We will not die but live,

and we will proclaim what the Lord has done.

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;

God's Easter love endures forever.

The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone;

The Lord has done this; and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;

God's Easter love endures forever.

Hymn #238

CONFESSING

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,

in raising Jesus from the grave,

you shattered the power of sin and death.

We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear,

often bound by the ways that lead to death.

We overlook the poor and the hungry
and pass by those who mourn;
we are deaf to the cries of the oppressed
and indifferent to calls for peace;
we despise the weak
and abuse the earth you made.
Forgive us, God of mercy.
Help us to trust your power
to change our lives and make us new,
that we may know the joy of life abundant
given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.

DEPARTING

Hymn #233

The Day of Resurrection!

Affirmation of Faith — 1996 Presbyterian Study Catechism

Question 46. What do we affirm when we say that "on the third day he rose again from the dead"?

That our Lord could not be held by the power of death. Having died on the cross, he appeared to his followers, triumphant from the grave, in a new, exalted kind of life. In showing them his hands and his feet, the one who was crucified revealed himself to them as the Lord and Savior of the world.

Question 47. What do we affirm when we say that "he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father"?

First, that Christ has gone to be with the Father, hidden except to the eyes of faith. Second, however, that Christ is not cut off from us in the remote past, or in some place from which he cannot reach us, but is present to us here and now by grace. He reigns with divine authority, protecting us, guiding us, and interceding for us until he returns in glory.

Response

Northumbria Community

May the peace of the Lord Christ go with you, wherever he may send you. May he guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm. May he bring you home rejoicing at the wonders he has shown you. May he bring you home rejoicing, once again into our doors.
